

Mayor of Crown Point Is “Splashin’ For A Cure”

10 Day eBay Auction Ends June 15

Dear Business Partners and Friends,

I am proud to announce that at this year’s Corn Roast, held June 19, at 8 p.m., I will be “Splashin’ For A Cure” to raise proceeds for the American Cancer Society Relay for Life of Crown Point. We have the opportunity to raise much needed funds for a very worthwhile organization, but I can’t do this without your help.

You can bid in the 10-day auction on eBay to be the first to dunk me on the Square; the winning bid will go to the American Cancer Society Relay for Life of Crown Point. The auction closes promptly on June 15th at 12 p.m.

The auction can be accessed directly by clicking the below link. There you can bid and also simply donate to this great cause.

The winning bidder will receive a ticket package for an upcoming 2009 Cubs game with myself and my wife Katie.

The second highest bidder will receive a $100 gift certificate for Lucreiza Italian Ristorante, 302 S. Main St., proudly sponsored by Crown Point’s Kopka Pinkus Dolin & Eads, LLC Attorneys at Law.

The third highest bidder will receive a 2009 Hub Pool Pass, which is good for the entire season of Crown Point’s Hub Pool, proudly sponsored by the City of Crown Point. “Splashin’ For A Cure” attendees will have the opportunity to dunk me at the event.

About the American Cancer Society Relay for Life of Crown Point

Relay for Life of Crown Point is a fun-filled overnight event designed to celebrate survivorship and raise money for research and programs of the American Cancer Society. During the event, teams gather at the Lake County Fairgrounds on June 19 and take turns walking or running laps. Each team tries to keep at least one team member on the track at all times. Opening ceremonies are slated to begin at the Fairgrounds at 6 p.m. sharp. The event will additionally feature the Survivors Dinner for both the survivor and caregiver at 4 p.m., Luminaria Ceremony at 9 p.m. and additional activities on the hour.

Thank you for making a difference in lives of those affected by cancer and celebrating those survivors.

Sincerely,

Dave

Mayor David D.F. Uran
